

Can we advance leadership and courage?

All CEOs, Managing Directors and Managers intuitively and instinctively know that we have a duty and responsibility to advocate leadership and courage throughout the organization regardless of size and shape. In this period of hypercompetitive change, many challenges are presented that we may not be particularly prepared for or were not trained for. Leadership requires courage and superior interpersonal skills as well as a passion for human performance and a focus on inclusion.

At times this may seem at odds with individual preference and circumstances, albeit sometimes challenging. But having a vision of what should be done and inspiring others to greater involvement and participation remains one of our greatest opportunities. Clearly by understanding others and ourselves better, we can best prepare for competition and change ethically and productively.

Be courageous and remember, it's better to always be kind than always be right. 🙏

我們能促進領導管理及勇氣嗎？

所有首席執行官、執行董事及經理等，均直覺地、本能地知道，無論企業的規模及風格為何，都有責任和義務推動企業內的領導管理及勇氣。在這個競爭異常激烈的變革時期出現的挑戰，可能是我們沒有準備好面對的，又或是未有接受過訓練去應對的。領導管理需要過人的勇氣、人際溝通技巧，以及對員工表現的熱誠、關注與包容。

儘管存在挑戰，有時候它們會與個人偏好和情況背道而馳。然而，具備前瞻性並激勵他人更積極參與，仍然是我們的主要機會之一。通過了解他人和自己，我們就能以合乎道德倫理且高效的方式，為競爭做好準備。

做人行事要勇敢，還要謹記——待人以禮，總比咄咄逼人為妙。🙏
